

The year of SinoNRS

Across the world they celebrated the year of SinoNRS.

From factory to store, U.S. retailers now have total supply chain control from a single logistics partner – SinoNRS. Combining the strengths of Sinotrans, China's largest domestic logistics company, and National Retail Systems, one of America's leading retail distribution companies, SinoNRS delivers the critical drivers of supply chain success: end-to-end speed, visibility, flexibility and control from inland factory pick-up to every store delivery. It's the best of both worlds.
